

Ken Matheson – for Councillor

Ken Matheson has spent a lifetime drawn to service, people, storytelling and the outdoors. His background includes service in the Canadian Armed Forces and a 20-year career with the RCMP, along with work as an outdoor guide, instructor, filmmaker, small business owner and community volunteer.

At the heart of who Ken is are the values of integrity, honesty, compassion, inclusion and respect. He believes in treating people with dignity, listening well and learning from the experiences and perspectives of others.

Ken has a deep appreciation for community and for the natural beauty that surrounds Clearwater. Most days, he can be found walking the local trails with his little red retrieving machine, Skye, often accompanied by his wife, Margot Venema, a well-known and respected volunteer in the community.

For Ken, Clearwater is more than where he lives. It is home, and a community he cares deeply about.
