

Bio – Shelley Sim – Mayor

Shelley Sim is a passionate community volunteer, experienced municipal leader and advocate for building a connected and thriving community.

Currently serving her fourth term as Councillor and third term as a School Board Trustee, Shelley brings extensive experience in local government, education and community leadership. She is Past President of the Southern Interior Local Government Association and Past Vice President of the Clearwater Chamber of Commerce. She holds SFU certification in Community Economic Development and Community Capacity Building.

As the former owner of Original Holidays, Shelley understands firsthand the opportunities and challenges faced by local business owners and the importance of a strong local economy.

Shelley has organized beloved community events including the Clearwater Canoe Regatta, Harvest Feast and Community Christmas Eve Dinner, and at Clearwater Ski Hill. She is also active in healthcare recruitment.

Shelley believes our community's VIBE comes from its people, passion, connections and shared commitment to creating a positive future.
